

National archery final returns to the heart of Nottingham

August 2025 – The 2025 National Tour: The Final will once again take place at the legendary home of archery, Nottingham. Forty finalists will come together to compete at the biggest UK archery competition aiming for glory at the historic Wollaton Hall. Witness the stars of the sport, Olympians, Paralympians and world-leading athletes go head-to-head hoping to be crowned this year's champions.

The six qualifying stages will take place from 26 April to 10 August across venues such as Lilleshall National Sports Centre in Shropshire, the home of competition hosts Archery GB, Barnsley, Surrey, and Oxford. The pinnacle of the event, The Final, will run from 30-31 August.

Come along and watch the action for yourself! Purchase your ticket here. Saturday will feature the world-class compound and arising barebow categories, while the Olympic recurve category will compete on the Sunday.

Not only can you watch some amazing feats of archery, but the event is the perfect weekend for the whole family. Try your hand at sending arrows down the range at our have-a-go stall, get your very own archery merchandise, and grab a picture or autograph from some of the stars of the sport. Even the legend himself, Robin Hood, will be making an appearance, as well as the Archery GB mascot, Fletch the Lion.

Every ticket purchased gives the holder a seat in our tiered stands, and only people with a seat are in with a chance of winning an array of fantastic prizes courtesy of our brilliant event sponsors.

Bring a picnic or purchase food at the event and make time to explore the historic deer park, museums and adventure playground.

Mark your calendars and secure your place to see the best of British archery!
